* * The Revue des Deux Mondes has been formed for the purpose of establishing an intercourse in the intellectual pursuits the most followed between distinguished men of Europe and America. It is proposed in this collection to give a prominent place to the affairs of the American Union, to the labors of its politicians, and to the Literary and Scientific publications of its Authors. The Revue des Deux Mondes now makes a public appeal to American Authors and Editors, by sending to it, through Mr. Putnam, of New York, a copy of each of their publications. The Revue is in a better position than any other organ in Europe to serve as an intellectual link between the Old and the New World, which has as Editors and Contributors the most eminent political, scientific, and literary men of France. Many of its contributors have visited North and South America, and it still counts among them many of the Diplomatic and Consular Corps.
Each number of the Revue, in addition to its articles signed by the first names of France, contains, under the title of "Chronique de la Quinzaine," a historical summary of the principal events of the political world, which will certainly be, for the American, the most faithful picture of the European movements.

THE KNICKERBOCKER MAGAZINE. Edited by Lewis Gaylord Clark.

THE KNICKERBOCKER MAGAZINE.

Edited by Lewis Gaylord Clark.

This is pronounced, by the press of America and England, the best magazine in America. It has nearly reached its thirty-fourth volume, and in its list of upward of a hundred contributors are found the names of every distinguished writer, male and female, in America, with several equally prominent of Great Britain, Turkey, Sweden, etc. A new volume, containing a superb engraving, a portrait of the editor engraved by Chenex, from a painting by Elliott, will commence on the first day of July, 1849. The following notices of the Knickerbocker are from the American and English press, and from American and British writers of distinction.

'The Knickerbocker.—The last number of this venerable and widely-popular periodical appears upon entirely new and beautiful type, in all its departments; and in its rich and diversified contents, continues to vindicate its reputation as the most agreeable and entertaining Maguzine published in the United States. When we first started the old New Yorker,' our friend Clark had preceded us as Editor of the Knickerbocker about a twelvemonth: it has now reached an age greatly beyond that of any American Monthly; a fact which literally 'speaks volumes' in praise of the manner in which the work has been conducted. No number of the K. has ever been issued under Clark's supervision that did not bear indubitable evidence of editorial care, and anxious thought, and well-directed labor enstamped upon its pages. We have known no monthly, of this country or Europe, so thoroughly edited, in the strictest sense of the term.'—New York Daily Tribune.

MATHEMATICIANS tell us of certain curves called asymptotes, whose peculiarity is always to approach each other, and yet, even when infinitely extended, never to intersect. The Knickersocker, which has reached an age for a Magazine much greater than a hundred years for a man, and only to be attained by a more marvellous miracle, has perpetually approached the highest possible point of interest and excellence; and yet it seems to have an excellence; and yet it seems to have an excellence; and yet it seems to have an excellence and excellence; and yet it seems to have an excellence and excellence; and yet it seems to have an excellence and excellence; and yet it seems to have an excellence and excellence; and yet it seems to have an excellence and excellence; and yet it seems to have an excellence and excellence; and yet it seems to have an excellence and excellence; and yet it seems to have an excellence and excellence; and yet it seems to have an excellence and excellence; and yet it seems to have an excellence and excellence; and yet it seems to have an excellence and excellence; and yet it seems to have an excellence and excellence; and yet it seems to have an excellence and excellence; and yet it seems to have an excellence and excellence; and yet it seems to have an excellence; and yet it seems t

THE LONDON EXAMINER.—'This very clever Magazine is the pleasantest periodical in the United States. Its articles, which are numerous and short, various and interesting, are well worthy of imitation by our Magazines on this side of the Atlantic.'

LONDON MORNING CHRONICLE.—'Judging from the numbers before us, we are inclined to consider this the best of all the American literary periodicals. Its contents are highly interesting, instructive, and amusing.' THE LONDON LITERARY GAZETTE.—'The taste amusing.'

The London Literary Gazette.—'The taste and talent which the Knickerrocker displays are highly creditable to American writers, and very agreeable for English readers.'

London Metropolitan Monthly Magazine.—'We have read several numbers of this talented periodical, and rejoiced in them. They would do credit to any country or to any state of civilization to which humanity has yet arrived.'

London Athenrum.—'From a very clever Monthly Magazine, 'The Knickerrocker.' of New York, we copy the following spirited story,' etc.

Sir Edward Bulwer Lytton.—'The Knickerrocker is the best American periodical I have yet seen. I take pleasure in enclosing you an article which was penned expressly for your work.'

Charles Dickers, esq.—'I read the Knickerrocker with very great pleasure: it is indeed a most various and entertaining periodical. It affords me pleasure to contribute to the pages of a work which numbers among its regular correspondents such writers as Mr. Irving.'

Rev. Dr. Dick Scotland.—'I have read a good many of the articles in the few numbers of the Knickerrocker which you sent me, and find them to possess great merit. Some of its papers, it is true, were too light for my serious turn of mind; yet the whole appears well calculated to gratify the iastes of the mass of readers.'

Capt. F. Marryatt.—'You make an excellent Magazine—spirited, various, and original. I hope my 'Moonahus' will reflect no discredit upon the good company in which it will find itself.'

Offers must be made for each half separately and distinctly: that is, for the half deliverable between the 1st of January and the 1st of April, and for the half deliverable between the 1st of June, 1850. Payment for the first half to be made within thirty days after delivery, and for the second half in thirty days after the 15th of June, 1850.

The beef must be from well-fattened cattle, slaughtered between the 1st day of November, 1849, and the 1st day of February, 1850, and weighing not less than six hundred pounds, nett weight, each. The legs and leg rands of the hind quarters, and the shins and shoulder clods, and at least eight pounds from the neck end of each fore quarter, or the parts marked Nos. 1, 2, and 3, on the drawing or delineation of the fore and hind quarters of an ox, which will be attached to and form a part of the contract, must be wholly excluded from each barrel and half barrel, and the remainder of the carcass must be cut in pieces of not less than eight pounds each.

Both the beef and pork must be salted with at least one statute bushel of Turk's Island, Isle of May, or St. Ubes salt; and the beef must have five ounces of fine pulverized saltpetre to each barrel, exclusive of a pickle, to be made from fresh water, as strong as salt will make it.

The barrels must be made of the best seasoned

Each barrel must be branded on its head "Navy Beef," or "Navy Pork," as the case may be, with the contractor's name and the year when packed.

The beef and pork will, unless otherwise directed by the chief of this Bureau, be inspected by the inspecting officers at the respective mavy yards aforesaid, and by some "sworn inspect of salted provisions," who will be selected by the respective commanding officers; but their charges for such inspection must be paid by the respective contractors, who must likewise have the barrels put in good shipping order to the satisfaction of the commandants of the respective navy yards aforesaid, after inspection, and at their own expense.

Budders must specify their prices separately and distinctly in separate offers for the beef and for the pork, and for each of the places of delivery, covering all expenses and all charges.

Bonds in one-half the amount of the respective contracts will be required, and ten per centum in addition will be withheld from the amount of each payment to be made, as collateral security for the due and faithful performance of their respective contracts, which will on no account be paid until the contracts are complied with in all respects, and is to be forfeited to the United States in the event due and faithful performance of their respective contracts, which will on no account be paid until the contracts are complied with in all respects, and is to be forfeited to the United States in the event of failure to complete the deliveries within the prescribed periods. In case of failure on the part of the contractor to deliver all or any of the beef or pork above mentioned, of the quality, and at the times and places above provided, the contractor will forfeit and pay to the United States, as liquidated damages, a sum of money equal to twice the amount of the contract price to be paid in case of the actual delivery thereof; which liquidated damages may be recovered from time to time as they accrue. Payment will be made by the United States at the periods above specified, (excepting the ten per centum to be withheld until the completion of the contracts, as before stated,) after the said beef and pork shall have been inspected and received, and bills for the same shall have been presented to the navy agents respectively, duly approved by the commandants of the respective may yards, according to the terms of the contracts.

The parts of the beef to be excluded will be particularly designated in the engraving to be attached to the contracts. Persons interested can obtain them on application at this office.

Bidders whose proposals are accepted (and none others) will be forthwith notified, and as early as practicable a contract and bond will be transmitted to them for execution; which contract and bond must be returned to the Bureau within ten days, exclusive of the time required for the regular transmission of the mail.
